The only terms and conditions of the Offer Letter of continuing applicability are that Mr. Campbell is eligible to receive two years of base and incentive compensation in the event of a change in control and one year of severance benefits in the event Mr. Campbell's employment is terminated by the Company for other than performance reasons.

(b) Timothy E. Thorsteinson

A copy of Mr. Thorsteinson's existing employment agreement, as amended, is filed as Exhibit 10.2, to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference. On November 17, 2003, Mr. Thorsteinson entered into a Letter Agreement with Leitch Technology Corporation (Leitch), which was later amended by a June 9, 2005 compensation amendment letter (collectively, the Original Employment Agreement). In connection with an Arrangement Agreement dated August 31, 2005 between the Company and Leitch for the Company's acquisition of Leitch, Leitch and Mr. Thorsteinson entered into a Letter Agreement dated August 31, 2005 (collectively, the August 2005 Employment Agreements), which amended certain terms and conditions of the Original Employment Agreement. A Letter Agreement dated October 24, 2005 between the Company and Mr. Thorsteinson (the October 2005 Letter Agreement) further amended the August 2005 Employment Agreements. The Original Employment Agreement, as amended by the August 2005 Employment Agreements and the October 2005 Letter Agreement are collectively referred to below as the Employment Agreement.

The terms and conditions of the Employment Agreement provide that Mr. Thorsteinson shall serve as President of Leitch, with compensation including an annual salary of $400,000 USD (which has been subsequently increased as set forth above), which will be reviewed annually and may be increased at the discretion of the Company, and any applicable bonus under the Company's Annual Incentive Plan. In addition, Mr. Thorsteinson is eligible to participate in all benefit plans generally available to senior executives of Leitch and to receive payment of the cost of preparation of his United States and Canadian income tax returns for 2006 and tax gross-up payments with respect to his base salary and bonus earned in Canada through November 23, 2006.

The Employment Agreement provides that if Mr. Thorsteinson remains actively employed by Leitch or other affiliates of the Company on October 24, 2006 (the Payment Date) and if Leitch satisfies a specified revenue target in fiscal 2006, Leitch will pay Mr. Thorsteinson a lump sum payment of $850,000 USD (the Payment). The Employment Agreement provides for an indefinite term of employment ending on the termination of Mr. Thorsteinson's employment by Leitch or the Company with or without cause (as defined in the Employment Agreement). In the event Mr. Thorsteinson's employment is terminated without cause, or if Mr. Thorsteinson is constructively dismissed, prior to the Payment Date, Mr. Thorsteinson would be entitled to receive from Leitch the Payment, within thirty calendar days of the date of such termination or dismissal. In the event Mr. Thorsteinson's employment is terminated without cause, or if Mr. Thorsteinson is constructively dismissed, after the Payment Date, Mr. Thorsteinson would be entitled to receive from Leitch a lump sum payment equal to his then base salary plus bonus paid in respect of Leitch's fiscal year 2006, within thirty calendar days of the date of such termination or dismissal. In the event that Mr. Thorsteinson's employment is terminated without cause, or if Mr. Thorsteinson is constructively dismissed, Mr. Thorsteinson would also be entitled to receive from Leitch continued participation in the medical, disability and group term life insurance benefits of Leitch until 12 months following such date of such termination or dismissal (or, if earlier, until the date or dates on which he receives similar benefits coverage elsewhere).

The Employment Agreement also provides that Mr. Thorsteinson will not, during his employment and for a twelve-month period following termination of his employment, be engaged in any undertaking, have any financial or other interest, or advise or provide services to, lend money to or guarantee the debts or obligations of, an enterprise, that competes in any material respect with the Company, Leitch or any of its affiliates; and during his employment and for a twenty-four month period following termination of his employment, solicit any customer or any employee, or appropriate any corporate opportunity of, the Company, Leitch or any of its affiliates.
