Stock Purchase Rights

Overview

We entered into a Rights Agreement dated August 25, 1993 which has been amended and restated pursuant to an Amended and Restated Rights Agreement dated March 5, 2002 (collectively, the Rights Agreement). Pursuant to the Rights Agreement, each share of our common stock outstanding as of, and issued after, September 7, 1993 is accompanied by a stock purchase right which entitles the holder to purchase from us one share of our common stock at an initial exercise price of $65 per share, subject to adjustment.

Exercisability and Transferability of Rights

Currently, the stock purchase rights are not exercisable or transferable apart from our common stock. The stock purchase rights will become exercisable and transferable upon the earlier to occur of:

the close of business on the tenth business day (or such later day as our board of directors may determine) following the first public announcement that a person or group of affiliated or associated persons has acquired or obtained the right to acquire beneficial ownership of 15% (or 10% in the case of an Adverse Person, as determined by our board of directors) or more of the then outstanding shares of our common stock; and the close of business on the tenth business day (or such later day as our board of directors may determine) following the commencement of a tender offer or exchange offer that could result in a person or group becoming the beneficial owner of 15% or more of the then outstanding shares of our common stock.

Flip-In Rights

Upon the acquisition of 15% (or 10% in the case of an Adverse Person, as determined by our board of directors) of our common stock by a person or group of persons, any stock purchase rights held by such person or group of persons will become null and void. Each other holder of a stock purchase right will have the right to receive, upon exercise, the number of shares of our common stock having a market value immediately prior to the acquisition equal to two times the then current exercise price of the stock purchase right.

Flip-Over Rights

Once the stock purchase rights become exercisable, if we are acquired in a merger or other business combination or if we sell or transfer more than 50% of our assets or earning power, each holder of a stock purchase right will have the right to receive, upon exercise, the number of shares of the common stock of the surviving entity or acquiring party whose value is equal to two times the then current exercise price of the stock purchase rights. This right may be exercised independent of the right exercisable upon the acquisition of 15% of our common stock by a person or group of persons as described above.

Redemption of Rights

Our board of directors may vote to redeem the outstanding stock purchase rights, in whole or in part, at a redemption price of $.001 per right, at any time prior to:

the close of business on March 5, 2012.

Exchange of Rights

At any time after the later of (i) the acquisition of 15% (or 10% in the case of an Adverse Person, as determined by our board of directors) or more of our common stock by a person or group of persons as described above, and (ii) any flip-in or flip-over event, our board of directors may exchange the stock purchase rights, in whole or in part, at an exchange ratio of one share of common stock per stock purchase right. However, our board of directors may not effect an exchange if any person or group of persons acquires beneficial ownership of 50% or more of our shares of common stock then outstanding.

Amendment of Rights Agreement

At any time prior to the stock purchase rights becoming exercisable, we or our board of directors may amend any provisions of the Rights Agreement granting the stock purchase rights without the approval of the holders of our common stock. At any time after the stock purchase rights become exercisable, we or our board of directors may amend the Rights Agreement in any manner consistent with and for the purpose of fulfilling the objectives of the board of directors in originally adopting the Rights Agreement.
