PART III.
NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Form 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Registrant recently completed the sale of two of its non-core business units. The associated negotiations, financials and legal due diligence subsumed management's time (including a significant portion of the finance and administrative function of the Registrant) throughout the third quarter. The finance and administrative function of the Registrant's business, which is significantly involved in the filing of the Registrant's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, did not have sufficient resources to devote to the 10-Q as a result of the sale of the Registrant's non-core business. Consequently, the Registrant cannot file its Form 10-Q in its entirety without unreasonable effort or expense.

If the answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or operation thereof?
