April 6, 2007

Dear Fellow Blair Corporation Stockholder,

The April 24, 2007 special meeting of the stockholders of Blair Corporation is fast approaching. Your vote on the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement between Blair Corporation and Appleseed's Topco, Inc. is important.

IF YOU HAVE NOT ALREADY VOTED YOUR SHARES, PLEASE DO SO TODAY.

If Blair's stockholders adopt the Merger Agreement and the transaction is completed, you will receive $42.50 in cash for each share of Blair common stock you own. Following the close of the transaction, Blair will operate as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Appleseed's.

Your board of directors is unanimously recommending approval of the merger agreement because it believes that the merger is in the best interest of all Blair stockholders. There are several important reasons for that recommendation:

The $42.50 payment in cash for each of your shares represents a premium to you. That price is nearly 30 percent higher than the closing price of Blair's stock on December 29, 2006, the last day of trading before Appleseed Topco's initial offer. In addition, that price is approximately 40 percent higher than Blair's average closing price in the 90-day period prior to the announcement of the agreement on January 23, 2007.

The Board conducted a comprehensive and thorough process of evaluating the proposal prior to voting to approve the agreement. We also reviewed a fairness opinion provided by Stephens Inc., our financial advisor, which found that the proposed purchase price is fair to Blair stockholders from a financial point of view. Stephens considered such factors as Blair's expected financial performance and present condition, assets, financial performance compared to other catalog companies and the amounts paid in other similar transactions.

The proposed Merger Agreement included a 30-day period during which Blair could solicit, receive, and review other offers for the Company; there were none. During this go-shop period, Stephens, operating on Blair's behalf, contacted 93 potential purchasers and none of those companies decided to submit a competing offer.

More detailed information on all of the points highlighted above is available in the definitive proxy statement that you should have received previously by mail. You also may obtain a copy of the proxy statement and more information about Blair from documents we have filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission at www.sec.gov.

Your Vote Is Important. Please Vote FOR the Merger Agreement Today.
