Item 8.01 Other Events

As previously disclosed, Customers Bancorp, Inc. ("Customers"), has been in discussions with the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve (the "Federal Reserve Board") staff regarding certain compliance matters relating to certain past activities of a former business partner of Customers, Higher One Holdings, Inc. ("Higher One"). To settle these matters from 2013 and to move forward, on December 6, 2016, Customers Bank, Customers' wholly-owned subsidiary, agreed to the issuance by the Federal Reserve Board of a combined Order to Cease and Desist and Order of Assessment of a Civil Money Penalty Issued Upon Consent Pursuant to the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, as amended (the "Order") with respect to these matters. The executed Order, which includes descriptions of the relationship between Customers Bank and Higher One, the concerns raised by the Federal Reserve, and the terms of the agreement, is included as Exhibit 10.1 to this document. Customers has already set aside a reserve for the civil monetary penalty. Therefore the civil money penalty, and other provisions of the Order, will not have a material adverse effect on Customers' results of operations or the conduct of Customers' business prospectively.

Customers Bank began its relationship with Higher One on August 14, 2013. In early September 2013 Customers Bank identified a potential UDAAP (unfair, deceptive or abusive acts and practices) issue with respect to certain Higher One practices and demanded that Higher One remediate the issue. The issue was substantively remediated by Higher One by December 19, 2013. Customers Bank reported this issue and its remediation to the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia.

Customers Bank is committed to delivering the best possible products and services to its clients in the most compliant fashion and to make banking affordable and assessable to millions of underserved Americans. Since taking over the Higher One Disbursement business in June 2016, Customers has already reduced fees by an estimated $70 million and is today servicing approximately 1.5 million student customers across the United States with one of the best checking accounts available.
