Item 5.02 Other Events.

On December 2, 2004, Louis Mancini resigned his position as President and Chief Executive Officer of GNC Corporation ("GNC") and of our wholly owned subsidiary, General Nutrition Centers, Inc. ("Centers"). Mr. Mancini also resigned as a member of each company's board of directors. The board of directors of each company appointed Robert J. DiNicola as interim Chief Executive Officer and is currently conducting a search for a permanent replacement for Mr. Mancini.

In connection with his appointment as interim Chief Executive Officer of Centers, Centers entered into an employment agreement with Mr. DiNicola. The term of the employment agreement expires on December 31, 2005, subject to one year extensions at the option of the company. Under the employment agreement, Mr. DiNicola will receive a base salary of $535,000 per year, with annual bonuses of 50% to 120% of his base salary based upon Centers' attainment of specified financial targets. In addition, Mr. DiNicola will be entitled to a success bonus of $1 million if, during the term of the agreement, Centers' completes an initial public offering or change of control transaction (in either case of a specified magnitude) and in certain other circumstances. Upon Mr. DiNicola's death or disability, he will be entitled to receive his base salary for the remaining term of the employment agreement and a pro rata bonus. In the event of a termination of Mr. DiNicola's employment without cause or for good reason (each, as defined in the employment agreement), he will be entitled to receive his base salary for 12 months and a pro rata bonus for the year in which he was terminated.

In connection with his appointment as interim Chief Executive Officer of GNC, Mr. DiNicola received options to purchase 300,000 shares of GNC common stock at a per share exercise price of $6.00 per share. 150,000 of these options are immediately exercisable, and 150,000 of these options become exercisable after 1 year of employment.
