Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement

Equity Purchase Agreement

On November 5, 2015, Bankrate, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), entered into an Equity Purchase Agreement (the “Purchase Agreement”) with All Web Leads, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“AWL”), pursuant to which the Company has agreed to sell to AWL (i) all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of NetQuote Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“NetQuote”), and (ii) all of the issued and outstanding limited liability company interests of IQ Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“IQ Holdings” and together with NetQuote, the “Target Companies”) for an aggregate purchase price (the “Purchase Price”) of $165.0 million (collectively, the “Transaction”).

The Purchase Price to be paid by AWL will consist of (i) $140.0 million to be paid in cash at the closing of the Transaction and (ii) $25.0 million (the “Deferred Payment Amount”) to be paid on the second anniversary of the closing date, each of which is subject to net working capital and cash adjustments. If AWL is unable to pay the Deferred Payment Amount in full on or before the second anniversary of the closing date as a result of restrictions under its credit agreement, AWL will pay the Company as much of the Deferred Payment Amount as is permitted under its credit agreement and deliver to the Company a subordinated promissory note in a principal amount equal to the unpaid portion of the Deferred Payment Amount, plus interest accrued at 8.0% per annum from the date of closing on such unpaid portion of the Deferred Payment Amount. Until the promissory note is repaid in full, it would accrue paid-in-kind interest at a rate of one-year LIBOR, plus 8.0% per annum. The promissory note would mature on the date which is six months after the maturity date of AWL’s senior credit facility. The Deferred Payment Amount and, if applicable, the principal and interest under the promissory note would accelerate after the occurrence of (a) a public offering of securities of AWL, (b) certain change of control and other fundamental transactions with respect to AWL and (c) if restricted under the terms of its credit agreement, (1) the payment by AWL of any management fee, transaction fee or other fee or remuneration to Genstar Capital VI, L.P., an affiliate of AWL (the “Sponsor”), or any of its affiliates and (2) with certain exceptions, the payment by AWL of any dividend or distribution to, or the redemption or repurchase of any equity securities held by, or any loan of funds to, AWL’s direct or indirect equity holders.

The Purchase Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants made by the Company and AWL, including, among others, covenants (i) requiring the Company to cause each of the Target Companies to conduct their business in the ordinary course consistent with past practice in all material respects and observe other restrictions on the operation of their business until the closing of the Transaction, (ii) restricting the Company and the Target Companies’ ability to solicit alternative transactions, (iii) requiring AWL to take the actions necessary to obtain equity and debt financing to fund the Transaction, and (iv) requiring the Company and AWL to cooperate in seeking to obtain any clearance required under the Hart-Scott Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the “HSR Act”), and any other applicable antitrust laws. The Company and AWL have generally agreed to indemnify each other for breaches of these representations and warranties, subject to survival period limitations. The Company’s indemnification of AWL is also subject to a “tipping” mini-basket of $50,000, a deductible of $750,000, and a cap of $16.5 million.

The closing of the Transaction is subject to satisfaction or waiver of customary closing conditions, including, among others, (i) the execution and delivery by the Company and AWL of (a) a litigation support agreement, (b) a restrictive covenant agreement and (c) a subordination agreement, each as of the closing date, (ii) subject to specified materiality standards, the accuracy of the representations and warranties of, and the performance of all covenants by, the parties, and (iii) the expiration or termination of applicable waiting periods under the HSR Act and any other applicable antitrust laws.

The Purchase Agreement contains certain termination rights for both the Company and AWL and further provides that, upon the termination of the Purchase Agreement, under certain circumstances, AWL may be required to pay the Company a termination fee of $8.5 million. The Sponsor has provided a limited guarantee of the payment of the termination fee.
